Some people consider Jazz as America's classical music and rightly so. The roots of jazz run from the Deep South, particularly in New Orleans, the city of diverse flavors. It was in the Crescent City this art form developed in the early part of the 20th century. The evolution of jazz has many contributors with worldwide appeal, love and admiration.

The Jacksonville Jazz Society Inc. was created in 2009, dedicated to the preservation, promotion and presentation of traditional and contemporary jazz music. We support live events, broadcasts and collaborate with various other jazz and educational organizations.
