"Keeping Jazz Alive"

WAYNE H. BARLOW

JAZZ MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

2024

The Jacksonville Jazz Society (JJS) is a not-for-profit organization comprised of jazz enthusiasts dedicated to the preservation, promotion, and presentation of Jazz. JJS Founder, Na'im Rashid, is extremely passionate about Jazz and educating future generations about this magnificent art form. To achieve its mission, the Wayne H. Barlow (Co-Founder) Jazz Music Scholarship was created to further jazz education by providing financial assistance to deserving students whose curriculum is focused on jazz studies.

Eligibility requirements and Application Requirements:

- Full-time enrollment at an accredited institution of post-secondary education or high school (within Jacksonville or surrounding counties – Duval, St. Johns, Clay, Baker, Flagler, Nassau, and Putnam) or any resident of Jacksonville or surrounding counties matriculating at a post-secondary educational institute.
- Must be entering or continuing a course of study pursuing a degree with major/minor in jazz studies.
- Recent unofficial transcript and two letters of recommendation from music instructors and/or counselor.
- An essay explaining experience(s) which influenced your decision to pursue a career in jazz music and how these experiences will help this career choice (2-page limit)
- A listing of your extracurricular activities (include descriptions/details). Add additional page, if needed.
- Application package and digital video recording (2 selections (lead or solo) provided on a cd, thumb drive, or emailed)
